

Gary Moore, Burning In Our Hearts

(Gary Moore)

When the night goes to sleep,
And the world keeps turnin'.
All alone in my room
With a love that's burnin'.
It's been so long
Since I found what I'm lookin' for.
Give me your love,
Bring it on home to me.

Love is deep as the ocean.
Love is what keeps us apart.
Love is a sea of emotion,
A fire that burns in our hearts.

When the night goes to sleep,
And the world keeps turnin'.
All alone in my room
With a love that's burnin'.
It's been so long
Since I found what I'm lookin' for.
Give me your love,
Bring it on home to me.

Love is deep as the ocean.
Love is what keeps us apart.
Love is a sea of emotion,
A fire that burns in our hearts.

When the night goes to sleep,
And the world keeps turnin'.
All alone in my room
With a love that's burnin'.
It's been so long
Since I found what I'm lookin' for.
Give me your love,
Bring it on home to me.

Love is deep as the ocean.
Love is what keeps us apart.
Love is a sea of devotion,
A fire that burns in our hearts,
A fire that burns in our hearts.

Love is as deep as the ocean.
Love is a sea of emotion.
Love is as deep as the ocean.
Love is a sea of emotion.
