Gary Moore, Burning In Our Hearts

(Gary Moore)

When the night goes to sleep, And the world keeps turnin'. All alone in my room With a love that's burnin'. It's been so long Since I found what I'm lookin' for. Give me your love, Bring it on home to me.

Love is deep as the ocean. Love is what keeps us apart. Love is a sea of emotion, A fire that burns in our hearts.

When the night goes to sleep, And the world keeps turnin'. All alone in my room With a love that's burnin'. It's been so long Since I found what I'm lookin' for. Give me your love, Bring it on home to me.

Love is deep as the ocean. Love is what keeps us apart. Love is a sea of emotion, A fire that burns in our hearts.

When the night goes to sleep, And the world keeps turnin'. All alone in my room With a love that's burnin'. It's been so long Since I found what I'm lookin' for. Give me your love, Bring it on home to me.

Love is deep as the ocean. Love is what keeps us apart. Love is a sea of devotion, A fire that burns in our hearts, A fire that burns in our hearts.

Love is as deep as the ocean. Love is a sea of emotion. Love is as deep as the ocean. Love is a sea of emotion.
