

Gary Moore, Hold On To Love

Look at you, a fool in love.
A man too blind to see.
You never ask yourself why they all leave you.
You try to play so many games.
You give yourself away.
And then you wonder why no one believes you.

You've got to realise
That this is goin' nowhere.
You've got to understand
That there's so much you can share.

You know you've got to
Hold on to love
If you wanna learn to forget your sorrow.
You've got to
Hold on to love
Like there's no tomorrow.

Look at you, a fool in love.
A man too blind to see.
You never ask yourself why they all hurt you.
You try to hide behind your lies.
You give yourself away.
And then you wonder why they all desert you.

You know you've got to
Hold on to love
If you wanna learn to forget your sorrow.
You've got to
Hold on to love
Like there's no tomorrow.

You know you've got to
Hold on to love
If you've got to beg, steal or borrow.
You've got to
Hold on to love
Like there's no tomorrow.

You've got to realise
That this is goin' nowhere.
You've got to understand
That there's so much you can share.

You know you've got to
Hold on to love
If you wanna learn to forget your sorrow.
You've got to
Hold on to love
Like there's no tomorrow.

You better learn to
Hold on to love
If you've got to beg, steal or borrow.
You've got to
Hold on to love
Like there's no tomorrow.

You know you've got to
Hold on, hold on, hold on
Keep holdin' on.
Hold on to love like there's no tomorrow.

There'll be a prize to pay
If your love runs away.
Hold on, hold on
Hold on to love.
