

Gary Moore, Love Can Make A Fool Of You

(Gary Moore)

I never was the kind of guy
Who thought that love could make me cry.
I found out the hard way
I was wrong.

I thought I was the only one,
But now I'm just the lonely one.
How could I have known
What's goin' on?

I'm tellin' you that love, love, love
Can make such a fool of you.
I'm tellin' you that love, love, love
Can make such a fool of you.

I never thought I'd live to see
The day you turn your back on me.
I don't understand
Where we went wrong.

You had me fooled with all your lies
And now the tears are in my eyes.
How could I have known
What's goin' on?

I'm tellin' you that love, love, love
Can make such a fool of you.
I'm tellin' you that love, love, love,
It makes such a fool of you.

I'm tellin' you that love, love, love,
Love, love, love,
Can make such a fool of you.
Hm, hm, hm, hm.

I'm tellin' you that love, love, love
Can make such a fool of you.
I'm tellin' you that love, love, love
Can make such a fool of you.

I'm tellin' you that
I've been told before, it's true,
Love can make such a fool of you.
I've been told before, it's true,
Love can make such a fool of you.
Love, love can make a fool of you.
