

Gary Moore, Nothing To Lose

You live your life in a state of confusion
Never finding your way
You've had the breaks
But you're so disillusioned
You only live for today

You never stop for a red light
You never even try
You're on the wrong side of midnight
Too fast to live, but too young to die

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
Keep on singing the blues
Keep on rockin' and rollin'
You've got nothing to lose

You say that you've got a hot reputation
You never built it on trust
I say you're part of a lost generation
You got left in the dust

You never stop for a red light
You never even try
You're on the wrong side of midnight
Too fast to live, but too young to die

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
Keep on singing the blues
Keep on rockin' and rollin'
You've got nothing to lose

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
Keep on singing the blues
Keep on rockin' and rollin'
You've got nothing to lose

Yeah, nothing to lose

You never stop for a red light
You never even try
You're on the wrong side of midnight
Too fast to live, but too young to die

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
Keep on singing the blues
Keep on rockin' and rollin'
You've got nothing to lose

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
Keep on singing the blues
Keep on rockin' and rollin'
You've got nothing to lose

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
You've got nothing
Keep on rockin' and rollin'
No, no, you've got nothing to lose

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
Nothing, nothing, nothing
Keep on rockin' and rollin'
You've got nothing to lose

Keep on rockin' and rollin'

No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
Keep on singing the blues
Nothing to lose

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
Keep on singing the blues
You've got nothing to lose

Keep on rockin' and rollin'
Nothing, nothing, nothing
Keep on singing the blues
You've got nothing to lose
