

Gary Moore, Who Knows (What Tomorrow May Bring)

(Gary Moore)

Gonna put some distance
Between me and the bad times.
There'll be no resistance,
Say goodbye to the sad times.

Who knows what tomorrow will bring?
Who knows what's around every corner?
Who knows what tomorrow will bring?

Gonna find the reason
To move on from the sad times.
Gonna come a season,
Bring an end to the bad times.

Who knows what tomorrow will bring?
Who knows what's around every corner?
Who knows what tomorrow will bring?

Maybe the dreams of yesterday,
The broken dreams of yesterday.

Who knows what tomorrow will bring?
Who knows what's around every corner?
Who knows what tomorrow will bring?

Maybe the dreams of yesterday,
The broken dreams of yesterday.
Maybe the dreams of yesterday.
