

Gary Numan, Intruder

I could listen to your scream
Pretty music to my ears
I could lie to you all day
If you want me to?

I could talk about my world
How you brought about ruin
I could talk about your greed
If you want me to?

I could look into evil
See a heart away reason
If you want me too?

You could walk into darkness
Find the hole you crawled in to
I will be the intruder
If you want me to?

You can whisper your Lord's Prayer
And pretend that it matters
But don't you wish you'd just listened more
You can hide in the shadows
And pretend I won't find you

But don't you wish
You'd just listened more?
