

Gary Numan, My Centurion

Somewhere in Dark corners
I know
Something is wrong.

No fear
No talking
Just this long wait for pain

Scream scream
We're going down
My centurion dies

All I can do now is wait for the noise

I'm so helpless and
I could just cry inside
'No! No!'

Oh God
Look at the speed
We're going in

So this
Is death and
It's so
Calm I'm surprised

All I can do now is wait for noise

This machine
No sign of life
Only the whisper of air

She won't turn
She won't climb
She won't stop
She won't fly

I'm falling
I'm silent
I'm thinking
I'm waiting for this thing to end.

All I can do now is wait for the noise.
