Gary Numan, Rumour

I listen to rumours Stone cold and bleeding They burn my heart away Left me alone and afraid Words seem to leave me Just when I needed them Just like I need you Like I'm supposed to do They say: Love is deceiving She won't stay forever Love is deceiving Is all that she knows Love is deceiving She'll leave you forever Love is decéiving She comes and she goes I wonder I wonder

I listen to rumours Listen to everyone Everyone but you And now it's all too late
