

Gas Giants, Now the Change

Been coming for a long time
Been heading for a rewrite
Revolving in the limelight
Its alright...

Living in the meantime
Avoid the social landmine
Everything is key lime
In my mind...

Loosen up
Come along
Is it enough when I say
Now the change is over
Right now, the change is over

Intimate and so blue
I like the way that you do
Lying like we all do
It's so true...

Dangerous and cheap friends
Their cottonmouth and split ends
I like it when the line bends
It all ends...

Everyone loves a liar
This time I mean it when I say
Now the change is over
Right now, the change is over

Going down the wrong street
I like it when you come around
Living in a fantasy
Never what you want to be
I love you anyway
Though I like it when you fall back down

Going down the wrong street
I like it when you come around
Playing with my fantasy
Get me where you want to be
I love you anyway
Though I like it when you fall back down
Right now, the change is over...
