

GASHI, No Face No Case (ft. Giggs)

i break the low
hop in the Wraith
doing the race
dodging the case
get out my face
get out my face

i break the low
then I tuck my heat
do it all for my seat
ain't shit coming up sweet only these diamonds
only time I freeze you know that we gotta eat doing this shit for my team never switching for no cream duck when you see that beam living the dream
rap what I seen
say what I mean
sipping some lean living it up and I;m popping the trunk and you know that I'm always serving every fiend pour me a four
pop me a bean
filling like I am an ATM machine

louis Vuitton from my feat to my jeans you know the jacket is always Supreme I break the low
hop in my car
big boy toy when the roof got stars every time they see me on charts pussy boys crying
cause I break they hearts bitch, I'm a star
right every bar fucking your bitch and I'm hitting it raw same way that I rock out on these shoes be the same way I rock that jaw
