

Gates Of Ishtar, Where the Winds of Darkness Blow

Dark is the night of the dead, lifted away from the skies
Facing the truth of the emperor, death to those of the light
The people that you can't unleash
Condemned to worship the holy cross
Life is ending so fast, darkness has showed up its sign
Waiting for death, is all that remains

Slaving for the signs of god, with your fate you will pay
Every mark in the sky, showing you, you will die

As the sky turns black, you wonder why?
The reason of this, you cannot try
Creations of death, creations of life
Your kingdom has come, your kingdom is gone

Where the winds of darkness blows
That's where I lost my soul
Where the winds of darkness blows
