

Gavin Castleton, Ransom

If you want to see your son again
Wake yourself at 2AM
Tip toe past the childrens beds
Fall out of love and onto the front lawn Leave the bible, wife, and meds

Roll your car down half a block Start it where the neighbors stop Travel north on I-15 Exit to the airport, park on the street take a flight to T.F. Green

Leave the airport, get a cab take 95 to Atwells Ave find out where he sleeps at night look at how he spends his time, find out where you'll fit in.
listen to the songs he writes.

Call his friends and learn their names Meet his girlfriend, do the same you'll find him backstage at a show Gagged and breaking the back that you gave him

let your hands say that you know
let your hands say that you know
let your hands say that you know
let your hands say that you know
