

Gavin DeGraw, Meaning

Hail to the light, that my baby's watchin' me.
In the darkness of the window,
I can hardly get to sleep.
Wish for the hour, that the night time soon shall pass.
And the morning dew will bring us,
to a day our souls can last.

Chorus:
Love has a reason, there's a meaning to the world.
We're giving love (yeah)

Situation: candle light,
enough to see the bits around you,
but its never very bright.
Stare at a memory,
you through the grapevine heard the truth.
It's good to learn from your mistakes,
but that only works in youth.

Chorus:
Love has a reason, there's a meaning to the world.
We're giving love
Giving love
Giving love
Giving love

Restless minds, curtain calls, follow fanfares.
Troubled hearts, just a walk down the hall.
Restless hearts you take a punch, just to land one.
Troubled minds, it's only fair after all.
Mountin' the trail, but you got it in sight.
Sometimes our only way is jumpin' I hope your not afraid of heights.
Reach in my pocket, for a bill that isn't there,
To face all of the un-doings, is still more than I can bear.

Chorus:
Love has a reason, there's a meaning to the world.
We're giving
Giving love
Giving love
It's always been good to me
It's always been good to me
It's always been good to me
It's always been good to me
It's always been good to me
It's always been good to me
Love has a reason, there's a meaning to the world.
We're giving love
