

Gavin Mikhail, One Of These Days

Today
Is there anybody listening?
Is there anybody left to hear me say
O.k... I'm doing this thing
Your way...

What if I wait around for forever?
Would it come back around here for me?
Or would I waste whatever's left of this life
Wishing for things I think I need?

'Cause I still believe
There's a heaven waiting there for me
And I know someday
I will find it, and you will find me on my way
If not today
Maybe
One of these days...

Today
Is it time to rise above this?
Is it time to move beyond the choice I made
And say, I can love this Someday...

What if I wait around for forever
Holding onto the hope that there's something more for me
Would I waste whatever's left of this life
Living for things I think I need?

But I still believe
There's a heaven waiting there for me
And I know someday
I will find it, and you will find me on my way
If not today
One of these days...

What did I ever do
To make you make my life so complicated?
I hate it
I wish you wouldn't do those things you do
So give me what belongs to me
And spare me all the sympathy you use
To hold me down
And keep me tied
One day you'll see me rise...

'Cause I still believe
There's a heaven waiting there for me
And I know someday
I will find it, and you will find me on my way
If not today
Maybe
One of these days...
