

Gavin Rossdale, Forever May You Run

take it easy on yourself
some sounds of yesterday the ghost of you dancing in the hallway

lunar to base
let's get this on
the kids have gone mad
they've been insane all along

forever may you run
forever may you run
forever may you run

forever may you run
forever may you run
forever may you

you don't deserve to get lost soon will come the waves will stop the still of the night sitting amps in the half line may your struggles all be one

(she said)
lunar to base
let's get this on
they've been insync all along

forever may you run
forever may you run
forever may you run
forever may you run
forever may you run
forever may you run
fovever may you

i'm walking into the end i got nowhere left to go
i get so inbetween
didn't make it to the disco
the president's in bed
they're trying to find a king buddha here is busy jesus wasn't in

there is snow over the road we'll have to wait before we go let the heat come in where you end i begin

low low low
low low low

run
run
run

did it all to yourself
