

GAYLE, ALEX

we were good until we weren't you had to know that it would hurt when you got drunk and said i was too sensitive all my friends

they hated you said steer away from dating you you never showed you loved me you just said you did after all your sh__ that i put up with all the lies i put the blame on me tryna fix it

i realize my emotions are indifferent
listening to lorde
sitting in the backseat
that's when it hits me

i've got to break up with alex it's gotten way too dramatic i've got to tell him that it's over we're passed the point of closure got to break up with alex break up with alex

ba da da do da
ba da da do da

you quit your job
out of spite but all you did was prove me right i don't know why you're so damn self destructive and i could never clear my head of all the times you sh__ the bed i can't believe you're somebody i trusted after all the sh__ that i put up with
