

GAYLE, ur just horny

I sent you straight to hell
Showed you new sides to yourself
Took scissors to your chastity belt
Then you fucked me over
You lied, you lied just a little
I guess I liked it a little
I let it slide every single time
But I'm gettin' bored, ugh
You don't wanna be friends, you're just horny
And fucked up at 2 a.m. in the mornin'
Say you've changed and you mean it
Say everything's different, but I think I'd rather sleep in
You don't wanna be friends
You're just horny
You don't wanna be my friend
You just wanna see me naked again
The more I get to know you
The more I wish I never did
Those things that I can't take back
My nails running down your back
Who the hell are you tryin' to kid
When you tell yourself we got somethin'?
Hit me up just to turn me on and then
Turn me down like it's nothing
You don't wanna be friends, you're just horny
And fucked up at 2 a.m. in the mornin'
Say you've changed and you mean it
Say everything's different, but I think I'd rather sleep in
You don't wanna be friends
You're just horny
You don't (You don't) wanna (Wanna) be my (Be my) friend
You just (You just) wanna (Wanna) see me naked again
You don't wanna be my friend
You just wanna always know that you can
I know you think I'm a fool and you're smooth, but you're not
You've been obsessin' over a night I forgot
Maybe deep down you just wanna get caught
I don't fuck and just stay friends
And you already missed your shot, so tell me
You don't wanna be friends, you're just horny
And fucked up at 2 a.m. in the mornin'
Say you've changed and you mean it
Say everything's different
But I think I'd rather sleep in
You don't wanna be friends
You're just horny
