

Geggy Tah, Century Plant 2000

Here comes 2000 and I hear
There'll be a party
In every house there'll be dancing
And every door will be open
'Cause here comes 2000 and I hear
There' ll be a barbeque
On the patio of your neighbor's
Stereo will play your favorite song
The century plant grows to the top
The century plant blooms when it stops
'Cause the century plant knows
The century plant grows to the top
The century plant blooms when it stops
'Cause the century plant knows
Changes all are timing
By sincere sap on the inside
I am not afraid to be blooming
On a different day I'm renewing
Extract the soap from the century
Plants can offer us almost Everything like cigarette papers
And Bible pages and strops for razors
The century plant grows to the top
The century plant blooms when it stops
'Cause the century plant knows
The century plant grows to the top
The century plant blooms when it stops
'Cause the century plant knows
Here comes 2000 and the times
They are a'changing
And if I' m still alive
At 2000 and 25 I' ll be singing
