

Geggy Tah, House Of Usher (Inside)

Inside of me there's a house of usher
Inside of me there's a frosted pane
Behind the glass there's a virgin mother
In a room in the house calling

Chorus:

Please won't you come in

Please won't you come inside

Please won't you come in

Please won't you come inside

Inside of me there's a full length mirror

Inside of me there's a full bathtub

Take the time to make the water dirtier

As you soak and scrub

Please won't you come in

Please won't you come inside...

Inside of me there's a big bath towel

Inside of me there's a big bath robe

Sorrow sneaks silently in slippers

Left behind when to bed you go

Please won't you come in

Please won't you come inside...

Lady Magdalene is not dead yet

Mary Magdalene's buried alive

Inside of me there's an open window

Inside of me there's an open shade

Shining in illuminate my slumber

Buried a life that was grey

Inside of me
