

Gene Pitney, Half-Heaven, Half-Heartache

My arms reach out for you i kiss you tenderly but you touch my lips you're kissing him not me, why must it be half heaven, half heartache, my lovin' you, darlin' can't you forget that other love you knew, hmm within your angel eyes a world of dreams are there yet i'll keep wondering if they are mine to share, oh it's just not fair half heaven, half heartache, my loving you, darlin' oh let my love be strong enough to take away the heartache and make my life a heaven on earth with you-ou-oo-ou (instrumental interlude)

and make my life a heaven on earth with you-ou-oo-oo-ou
