

Gene, Somewhere In The World

Is there a country
Just for the lonely
A land that gently heals despair
Somewhere in the world.
Somewhere in the world.
Somewhere in the world.
Is there a shoreline for life's lost sailors
Guiding them safely to the sand
Somewhere in the world.
Somewhere in the world.
Somewhere in the world.
Let there be people there
willing to take a man who's crushed, empty and bare
Let there be love to share
What use is love without a heart, from nowhere to where I had a love once
We danced the high life
Hard times took my love elsewhere
Somewhere in the world
Someones got my girl
Somewhere in the world
Is there a country just for the lonely
A land that gently heals despair
Somewhere in the world.
Somewhere in the world.
Somewhere in the world.
