

Genesis, Vision Of Angels

Standing in a forest gazing at the sun looking at the trees but there's not even one See a rippling stream that smiles and then goes by run to feel its comfort but the water's dry.
I see her face and run to take her hand
Why she's never there I don't understand The trumpets sound my whole world crumbles down Visions of angels all around dance in the sky
Leaving me here
forever goodbye.
As the leaves will crumble so will fall my love for the fragile beauty of our lives must fade Though I once remember echoes of my youth now I sense no past, no love that ends in love Take this dream the stars have filled with light
As the blossom glides like snowflakes from the trees
In vengeance to a god no-one can reach.
Visions of angels all around
dance in the sky
Leaving me here
forever goodbye.
Ice is moving and world's begun to freeze see the sunlight stopped and deadened by the breeze Minds are empty bodies more insensitive some believe that when they die they really live I believe there never is an end God gave up this world its people long ago Why she's never there I still don't understand Visions of angels all around
dance in the sky
Leaving me here
forever goodbye.
