

Gentleman, In Pursuit Of Happiness

in pursiut of happiness total togetherness it's such an elusive thing so we hope and sing mount everest climb it and never rest limbs get sour and even spine get test always pursiut you can gain it some get a lot of the pot but dem still don't attain it captured and claim it name it and frame it the strongest will survive and maintain it visions with ambition and nuh ramp at all build a step with stumbling blocks and climb the wall you have been chosen now time to hear the call jah power sign and sealer question to answer and earthly tings laughter joy and sorrow is what life will bring calculate it and simplify give it more try one more devoted to your dream reach out and grab it promoted by the clean real life habit you got to watch your back or frienemy will stab it take care of a your soul or babylon will rob it dem words nuh have no weight dem just pod it mind it suck upon your brain and mad it pressure nonstop dem multiply and add it the reason for it all we forgot it there is so much to erase but there is a time and place i can see it on your face heartbroken human face nothing to replace all the moments gone to waste find an open space and leave your trace
