

Gentleman, Soulfood

never ending burnin' fire reach a higher and higher and higher and higher here we go again girl the same ting now as then reaching for the light that's never ending so begin listen to the wind count your blessings in reaching for the light that is never ending now we know that des ya love is everlasting deeper than well blossom bloom and we know des a no false ting forward we a go it's not a past ting right around the world a second we nuh hesitate is not a mask ting and dis is not surprising what is uprising love and bliss we advertising and des is food for our soul live a fruitful life before we old still goin on still goin on pushing obstacles out of the way

stay by your side until the end of days never have to search tendernes all around you better not worse since the day that i found you pricless love and joy is what it amounts to knowing all the time i can count on you from first moment i knew what's in store every likkle ting about you iman adore pleasures and desires that we never knew before woman you really make me glad and so much more time truly the master of it all seasons they may change but love remain the same wether summer spring winter or fall we'll be there for us through all the pain and the strain burning hot it is blazin passion amazing no holding back and saving

and des is food for our soul we live a fruitful life before we old
