

George, Can't Stop Loving You

Since you let me go
Every single day seems impossible
Just cant get u out of my mind
Everything i see brings back memories
Of you and me
Left me on my knees
Even though its been hell
Im still begging please
And I really just wanna why

Babe if you're home please pick up the phone
Cuz im incomplete without you
I just cant stop loving you
I just cant stop loving you
Cuz im all torn up and I just cant give up
Loving you,
I just cant stop loving you
I just cant stop loving you
Cuz im all torn up and I just cant give up

I know you cant girl
And I know youre only doing this to
Hurt me, girl, and im dying inside
Tonight, i got no other choice, i need to hear your voice
To get by,
If were meant to be just thought i should be happy
And im saying it straight from the phone
If loving u is wrong i dont wanna be right
Guess it is what it is

I just cant stop loving you
I just cant stop loving you (cant stop, cant cant stop)
Cuz im all torn up and I just cant give up
Loving you,
I just cant stop loving you
I just cant stop loving you
Cuz im all torn up and I just cant give up loving you

Theres are times im.....
Cuz i dont like to be alone (dont like to be alone)
Lookin at all the pictures that I have of you
Im listening to sad love songs
Where will i go, what will i do
Where will i be if i cant be with you
Here i stand, half a man
And im givng my all...

I just cant stop loving you
I just cant stop loving you
Cuz im all torn up and I just cant give up
Loving you,
I just cant stop loving you
I just cant stop loving you
Cuz im all torn up and I just cant give up

I just cant stop loving you
I just cant stop loving you
Cuz im all torn up and I just cant give up
Loving you,
I just cant stop loving you
I just cant stop loving you
Cuz im all torn up and I just cant give up
(all torn up, cant give up)
(all torn up, cant give up)
