

George Canyon, Some People Change

His old man was a rebel yeller bad boy to the bone he say, can't trust a coloured feller' he'd judge em' by the tone of their skin

And he was raised to think like his dad their mind full of hate On the road to no where fast till the greats of god got in his way and he saw the light and hit his knees and cried and said a prayer he rose up a brand new man left the old one right there

Here's to the strong
Thanks to the brave
don't give up hope
Some people change
against all odds
against the grave
love finds a way
Some people change

She was born with her mothers Guess you could say it's in her blood she hates that she's gotta have it she fills a glass up she'd love to kill that bottle but all she can think about is a better life a second chance and everyone she's letting down she throws that bottle down

Here's to the strong
Thanks to the brave
don't give up hope
Some people change
against all odds
against the grey
love finds a way
Some people change

Thank god for those who make it Love be the light

(some people change)
Here's the the stornng
Thanks to the brave
don't give up hope
some peopel change
against all odds
against the grey
love finds away
some people change
(some people change)
don't give up hope
some peopel change
some people change
