George Canyon, Workin' On Ten

She's got an '83 280z, just 23 Lives on 42nd street, Paris, Tennessee Exactally 924 feet from her door to mine Seven days a week at 6a.m. she gets her 5 miles in All the neighbourhood men pretend to get their paper When she goes running by

She don't see it but it's obvious Everybody else, it all adds up

Chorus:

One Miss america smile, two blue eyes Three little words I'm telling her tonight She's cooler than cool and hotter than the 4th of July She's five foot six and she's gonna look great I'm seven minutes early for an eight o'clock date She's one hot number, hallelujah, amen She's a hard nine, working on ten

She's a first round knock out, down for the count Loud twist and shouter A keg of gunpowder Sparks fly around her 24 hours a day

She's smart, funny, ooh honey smack dab on the money Summa cum laudae A smart little hottie Who would have thought she'd ever even look my way

I'm a lucky man there ain't no doubt It ain't that hard to figure out

Chorus:

One Miss america smile, two blue eyes Three little words I'm telling her tonight She's cooler than cool and hotter than the 4th of July She's five foot six and she's gonna look great I'm seven minutes early for an eight o'clock date She's one hot number, can i get an amen She's a hard nine, working on ten Yeah, she's a hard nine, workin on ten
