

George Jones, Hello Trouble (Come On In)

HELLO TROUBLE (COME ON IN)
WRITERS ORVILLE COUCH, EDDIE McDUFF

Woke up this morning happy as could be look out my window what did I see
Comin' up my sidewalk was as big as day
Oh well here comes trouble that I never thought I'd see when you went away
Hello trouble come on in
Well you talk about heartaches where the world you've been
I ain't had the mis'ry since you've been gone
Well hello trouble trouble trouble welcome home
We'll make a cup of coffee and you can rest your shoes
And you can tell me them sweet lies and I'd listen to you
For I'm just a little part of all the life you've lived
But I'd rather have a little bit of trouble than to never know the love you give
Hello trouble come on in...
Hello trouble trouble trouble welcome home
