George Jones, It Scares Me Half To Death

IT SCARES ME HALF TO DEATH (Joe Allison - Audrey Allison) '56 Central Songs

It scares me half to death to think I almost lost you It breaks my heart to know how much I made you cry And if you'll let me show you darling I'll right the wrongs I've done And ease the heartaches I have caused in the days gone by You told me that our love was cold and then you said goodbye But I can't love another I'd be living a lie It scares me half to death to think I had forgotten The vows we made to stay together come what may And while I'm holding you my darling I'm holding my breath Cause just the thought of losing you scares me half to death It scares me half to death to think I had forgotten...