

George Jones, Wrapped Around Her Finger

Like a string she's got me wrapped around her finger
And it gets a little tighter every day
It would break my heart to think that I would lose her
So I'll do anything I can to make her stay
If she could understand how much I need her
Then I know that she would never go away
For she's got me wrapped around her little finger
And it gets a little tighter every day

Let me tell you just how much I love my baby
Take the world and everything one may desire
For there's only room in my heart for this lady
Who keeps the burning in my heart as hot as fire
She's the one who's always lying here beside me
But her mother's never very far away
Yes she's got me wrapped around her little finger
And it gets a little tighter every day
She pulls the string a little tighter every day.
