

George Michael, Blue (Armed With Love)

(Blue)

Everyday it seems my smile's a little harder
And everyday i seem to laugh a little less

(Blue)

Living this way it seems my sky's a little darker
You went away and left me lonely in success

Can't you see me falling apart?
Can't you see me falling apart?
Can't you see?
Can't you see me falling apart?
Can't you see me falling apart?

Can't you see what's happening to me?

(Blue)

Take this hand and show my fingers where my heart is
Understand you may just save me from despair

(Blue)

Watch this man you'll see he can't stop what he started
Take this hand you'll see right now there's no one there

Can't you see me falling apart?
You laugh at me as i fall
Can't you see me falling apart?
Just tell me tell me give me one good reason

Armed with love i could save my heart
But on my own i just can't make it
I'm too weak to fight so take it
Armed with love i could save my heart
But instead i watch it die

Armed with love i could save my heart
But on my own i just can't make it
I'm too weak to fight so take it
Armed with love i could save my heart
But instead i watch it die

Tell me, why why why

Can't you see me falling apart?
Can't you see me falling apart?
Can't you see me falling apart?
Can't you see me falling apart?
Can't you see me falling apart?
Can't you see me falling apart?

Can't you see? Can't you see?
Can't you see me?

Armed with love i could save my heart
But on my own i just can't make it
I'm too weak to fight so take it
Armed with love i could save my heart
Tell me, why am i so blue?

Armed with love i could save my heart
But on my own i just can't make it
I'm too weak to fight so take it
Tell me, why why why am i so blue?
