George Michael, Like A Baby

Foreign skies That blinded me to empty charms I crossed the ocean and fell into your arms So sure, so wrong You sang me a simple tune I took it for a song

Say goodbye, don't tell me why you have to go Loving you was as good as gold (as good as gold) I'd love to love you, really love you But you see, there's something you should now I really didn't think you'd go

Because today

I could have sworn I heard you say I love you I want you I need to be with you

Today I saw something in your face Stay here Beside me I need your love to hide me You lied And now you've gone away And left me crying like a baby
