

George Morgan, Your Lonely Nights Are Over

Your lonely nights are over for there's someone new
And he doesn't neglect you like I used to do
Once again you're smiling once again life is fun
Yeah your lonely nights are over and mine have just begun

In a far away city where I lingered a while
I kept thinkin' about you of your eyes and your smile
I decided I love you and came back yesterday
Now I find that your teardrops washed your love from me away
[guitar - piano]
Oh your lonely nights are over...
