

George Strait, Deep Water

I'm drifting into deep water,
I'm starting to care for you.
You're gettin' me in deep water,
Be careful what you do.

You want a romance, but I'm seeking love.
I know I'll regret it when it ends.
I'm winding up in deep water.
Why can't we just be friends?

There's restless and there's deep water.
I'm lost between right and wrong.
My love is true as deep water.
Your love won't last as long.

Where will it lead me and where will it end?
I can't help but wish I only knew.
I'm winding up in deep water.
So deep in love with you.
