

George Strait, If You Ain't Lovin' (You Ain't Livin')

If you got a Cadillac, boy, and a forty - room shack, boy,
A bucket full of money and a tree full of honey,
But if you're gettin' no huggin', no smoochin' or a - muggin'.
If you ain't lovin', then you ain't livin'.

If you're ridin' on a gravy train instead of walkin down lover's lane,
You can't make hay, boy, 'cause you're goin' the wrong way boy.
You gotta get a little honey, it's better than money.
If you ain't lovin', then you ain't livin'.

If they call you a big man 'cause you gotta lotta bottom land.
If you're kin to the president and you help run the government,
But if you're gettin' no attention, you're better off on a pension.
If you ain't lovin', then you ain't livin'.

If you got a string of long cars and you're smokin' them four - bit cigars.
You ain't no well to do unless you get a little koochi - koo.
It takes a little bit of smackin' - all your life's a - lackin'.
If you ain't lovin', then you ain't livin'.
