

George Strait, Lover In Disguise

There's a secret that I know about the lady that I love so
And I'm the only one she's shown her secret to She's gentle and she's kind
She's proper and refine
But she lets down more than her hair
Alone in our room

[Chorus:]

Cause she's more than a lady
And there's a fire that burns behind those eyes
She's more than a lady
And every night when we lay down
And she slips off her satin gown
Oh, she proves she's a lover in disguise
She's a lover in disguise

When we go out somewhere
The men may stop and stare
But they see she's a lady
So they leave her alone
She's more than she seems
And in their wildest dreams
They could never dream of what it's like to take her home

[Chorus]

She's a lover in disguise
She's a lover in disguise
She's a lover in disguise
