Hey mister bartender please dont be so slow ive got time for one more round and a six pack to go tomorrow mornin's sunday, im gonna be feelin' low so please please bartender i wanna six pack to go ive been drinkin all day long taking in the town ive done spent my whole paycheck just a honky tonkin round well i dont have enuf to pay my rent but i aint gonna worry though ive got time for one more round and a six pack to go!
