

George Thorogood & The Destroyers, Double Shot

Woke up this mornin'
My head was so bad
The worst hangover
I ever had
What happened to me that night
That girl of mine
She love me so right
She love me so long
She love me so hard
I finally passed out in her front yard
It wasn't wine I had too much of
It was a double shot of my baby's love

A double shot of my baby's love
Yeah yeah yeah
A double shot of my baby's love
Yeah yeah yeah
A portion that I had too much of
A double shot of my baby's love

Give me such a thrill
It was very unique
Man, I was lookin' in ecstasy
She had me turnin' flips
And shoutin' out loud
A shot of her love
I was walkin' on a cloud
One night a week
Is plenty enough
It's a good thing for me
They don't bottle this stuff
Well, my heart begins to fly like a dove
When I take a double shot of my baby's love

A double shot of my baby's love
Yeah yeah yeah
A double shot of my baby's love
Yeah yeah yeah
A portion that I had too much of
A double shot of my baby's love

Woke up this mornin'
My head was so bad
The worst hangover
I ever had
What happened to me that night
That girl of mine
She love me so right
She love me so long
She love me so hard
It was a double shot of my baby's love

A double shot of my baby's love
Yeah yeah yeah
A portion that I had too much of

A double shot of my baby's love
A double shot of my baby's love
A portion that I had too much of

It was a double shot of my baby's love
