

George Thorogood, The Fixer

I can take one heart that's been misused
Take two eyes been cryin' the blues
Kiss your lips and then count to three
Make you forget every man but me

I'm the fixer
Make the stubborn mule wanna run
I just snap my fingers
And the fixer gets it done

If you need comfort, I'm a dead-bolt lock
I'm your protection around the clock
I've got you covered from head to toe
Just call me honey and I'll be knockin' on your door

I'm the fixer
And I've only just begun
I just snap my fingers
And the fixer gets it done

If you stand accused, I'll take the blame
If you lose your mind, I'll go insane
If you're breakin' down, don't give up hope
If I can't fix it, baby, it ain't broke

I'm the fixer
I'm the one and only one, yeah
I just snap my fingers
And the fixer gets it done, ha ha

If you stand accused, I'll take the blame
If you lose your mind, I'll go insane
I've got you covered from head to toe
Just call me honey and I'll be knockin' on your door

I'm the fixer
I'm the one and only one
I just snap my fingers
And the fixer gets it done

Yes, I just snap my fingers
And the fixer gets it done
I just snap my fingers
And the fixer gets it done

Yeah, I'm your fixer, baby
F I X E R
Ha ha ha
