

Gerald Levert, Shootin' The Breeze

It seems we never have time alone
There's so much more to this love
That we've known let's get away

Just leave today forget our troubles
Try to find some piece of mind
Sky is the limit this time Baby

Shootin' the breeze enjoying the weekend
Taking it easy just you and me
Shootin' the breeze enjoying the weekend
Taking it easy just just you and me

Can you imagine you and me alone
Fulfilling our wildest dreams
Baby come on I'll be your slave
Your every wish is my command

Come go with me in ecstasy
Will be right at your hands how can you refuse
We'll watch the sunset and count all the stars
I'll be so happy to be where you are
