

Gerald Levert, Wilding Me Out

[1]

Everybody plays a fool (For someone)
Calling you and paging you (9-1-1)
Can't stand when you're not around
Your love is wildin' me out
Wilding me out, wilding me out
Wilding me out

Crazy, I used to call it crazy
When my friends used to be
All confiding in me 'bout their girl
See, I never understood
How any real man could
Let a woman come in
To change and shake up their world, uh no
One thing you can not change now I feel this way

[Repeat 1]

Calling your house, hangin' up
Doin' all that crazy stuff
Girl, I followed you home
Just to see if you're alone, baby
Ain't that crazy baby
Got me callin' all your so-called friends
Seeing what you did last night again
I can't sleep, I can't eat
You done beat me at my own game, baby
Yes you did
I guess it's true cuz I'd be your fool
If you asked me to

[Repeat 1 x2]

I would do about anything
Just to keep you happy baby, yeah
I used to live a player's life, yeah
But you came and changed my mind baby

[Repeat 1 with ad libs until fade]
