Geri Halliwell, Desire (Single Version)

I'm a sure-fire pussy cat I ain't gonna tell you that I'm giving myself away You're a real catch that's a fact I am gonna tell you that Baby I want you to stay

My fever's high your tide is low Just don't forget to love me No no no no

Whatever you sold me
Whatever you feed me
It's taking me over and over
I'm the cat that can fight it
Whenever I need it
Your kiss kills me with, desire

Young gun you're the one Lift me up and take me on Just like you did in my dream Sweet man I know you can But I would never tell you that Baby I'm diggin' your scene

My fever's high let's roll the dice But don't forget I love you No no no no

Whatever you sold me
Whatever you feed me
It's taking me over and over
I'm the cat that can fight it
Whenever I need it
Your kiss kills me with

You're contagious, I'm confusing We can take this anywhere we like it You're amazing, so amusing Your kiss kills me with desire

Whatever you sold me
Whatever you feed me
It's taking me over and over
I'm the cat that can fight it
Whenever I need it
Your kiss kills me with, desire
