

German Rock Project, Let Love Conquer The Wo

Don't walk on by we want you to stay for a while won't you open up your eyes don't turn away from all the troubles of these times they're not just sentimental lies so put away your pride

What would you say if somebody needs your helping hand could he rely upon your words it won't take too long why don't you give iust a little heart instead of taking your returns don't turn against the tide we gotta bring this dream alive

CHORUS:

Let love conquer the world it's time for sacrifice a little faith within our lives.
We've gotta let love conquer the world and if we make a start one day love will rule the world.

Can you consider a life without prejudice and greed Could you face yourself and smile you gotta realize it all begins with you and I it's not for others to decide why don't you be the guide and bring this dream alive
