

Gesaffelstein, So Bad (ft. HAIM)

Please don't be (so bad)
I still feel (you there) Tears, they (fell so bad)
How could I be so wrong?
How could I be (so strong?)
Nothing else compares
How could I be so wrong?
How could I be so strong?

I came to find death
I stayed for life
I came here foolish
I left here wise
I 'm waiting for something I can't deny
a truth
a sermon
a sacrifice
I wanna wake p and all is love forget the trouble I made up the waves are coming the shore these dreams of mine go on and on

how could I be so wrong?
how could I be so wrong?

I came to find death
I stayed for life
I came here foolish
I 'm waiting for something I can't deny
a truth
a sermon
a sacrifice
I wanna wake p and all is love
forget the trouble I made up
the waves are coming the shore
