

Get Set Go, Won

Won't Let Her Go; Ordinary World ('06); Trk 12

She doesn't close the door, as she visits the bathroom; the sound of flushing water, comes a little b

She thinks, I don't know; she thinks, I don't know-oh-oh; oh, but I know.

Her phone rings once again, in the middle of the night; "Hello," I answer, as I fumble for (Chorus: But I won't let her go; no, I won't let her go-oh-oh; I won't let her go. Cause I can't let her g

One night as we're driving, to some place I'm not sure where; there's a strange sort of tension, han

She thinks, I don't know; she thinks, I don't know-oh-oh; oh, but I know.

And then when we get home, we just sit there in the car; I simply stare ahead, and wonder how we (Chorus).

(When we were young; oh, we were young; and we were everything) (x 4).

But I won't let her go; no, I won't let her go; no, I won't let her go-oh-oh; I won't let her go.

Cause I can't let her go; I can't let her go; no, I can't let her go-oo-oh; I can't let her go-oo-oh-oo-oh
