

Gewapend Beton, Once I Believed

Once I believed in peace and freedom
But war is all I see
Once I believed I wouldn't change society is changing me
Once I believed in just one side
One side of the story
But now I know life ain't that easy
Once I believed
But today I don't believe no more
Once I believed the world could change
Now I know it won't
Once I believed I knew it all
But now I know i don't
Once I believed in just one side
one side of the story
But now I know life ain't that easy
