

Ghost Dance, A Deeper Blue

The colours fade
Somewhere inside
These shades of grey
Were once black and white
How many more have passed this way only to find
What they were looking for disappear before their eyes

Show me where the colours fly
And disappear from view
Paint the endless sky a deeper blue
A deeper blue

The colours fade
Somewhere inside
And the promise made
In your eyes
How many times have I heard these words before
And how many times have I picked myself up off the floor

But when I look into your eyes
I know its true
Surrender to surprise
A deeper blue
A deeper blue

Across the sea the great divide
Through time Ill follow you
Lost forever in your eyes
A deeper blue
A deeper blue, a deeper blue
