

Ghost Dance, Heaven And Beyond

Save your tears he cried for my soul
I fear what I have done
Its time to say goodbye
To the fools I pinned my hopes upon

Theyll try to break your will
Grind you down until all your dreams have gone
But you can set me free
Oh let me see heaven and beyond

We look for words to say
In a cold grey corner of the room
On the bed where we lay
I kneel and pray that morning never comes

The walls are closing in on my heart again
Tell me that Im wrong
You can set me free
Oh let me see heaven and beyond

So wheres the sense in waiting
Only you will know
Save your tears for my soul
Take the gun, do it now, do it now
Its better now than a life slowly dying

Shot

Theyll try to break your will
Grind you down until all your dreams have gone
But you can set me free
Oh let me see heaven and beyond
You can set me free
Oh let me see heaven and beyond
