

Ghost Dance, When I Call

Close your eyes sweet child
And let me wipe away the tears
Come and lay beside me now
The night is drawing near

And let time reach out and take you far away from here
Stop your crying sweet child
And make the darkness disappear

Close your eyes
Dont be afraid your secrets safe with me
Draw the blind, lock the door and throw away the key

When I call and the tide is waiting we can disappear
When I call maybe time will take me far away from here
When I call only you can say the words I need to hear
When I call dont be afraid theres nothing left to fear
Tonight

Close your eyes sweet child
And let me wipe away the tears
Come and lay beside me now
Theres nothing left to fear

When I call and the tide is waiting we can disappear
When I call maybe time will take me far away from here
When I call only you can say the words I need to hear
When I call dont be afraid theres nothing left to fear
When I call
When I call
